Competitive Scholarship Application

2009-2010

Name: _____ High School: _____

The CollegeBound Foundation is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to encouraging and enabling Baltimore City public school students to go to college. One method by which we accomplish this mission is through the award of scholarships to worthy students. Together with the generosity of individuals, organizations, foundations and businesses sponsoring these awards, CollegeBound hopes to lighten the burden of financing a college education.

- By checking here, I am submitting my application to be considered for the CollegeBound Foundation Competitive Scholarship Program and to have my application materials forwarded to a select and limited number of additional scholarship providers. I understand that I am still responsible for applying to all scholarship programs for which I am interested. I understand that if I decline this option it will in no way impact my eligibility or consideration for a CollegeBound Foundation Competitive Scholarship.*

Eligibility:

- Must be a 2009 graduate of a Baltimore City public high school.

You must submit:

- Recent high school transcript (must include the first semester of your senior year);
- Two (2) letters of recommendation;
- A copy of your college acceptance letter(s);
- Resume (must include community service, employment and co-curricular activities {clubs and organizations} for each year of high school as well as any leadership positions held).

The following documents may be required for some scholarships:

- Essay(s), (include your full name and the name of the scholarship for which you are applying on each page; no staples please!);
- SAT Scores (must include copy of official scores or must be on your high school transcript);
- Student Aid Report (SAR), Financial Aid Award Letter (FAAL) or copies of tax forms (only required for scholarships requesting demonstration of financial need);
- Verifiable community service (use the worksheet provided or include a typed community service resume);
- Additional letters of recommendation.

Please note the required materials for the scholarship(s) for which you are applying; each scholarship has different criteria. If all the required materials are not received for a particular scholarship, you will not be considered for that award.
