COLLEGEBOUND AND BALTIMORE CITY HIGH SCHOOL GUIDANCE COUNSELORS JOIN HANDS

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

Press Release

The Baltimore City Public School System Office of High Schools has launched a new initiative with the CollegeBound Foundation in support of system-wide school reform efforts to establish a culture of college readiness within each Baltimore City High School.

The first in a series of professional development workshops will bring high school guidance counselors together with CollegeBound Foundation college access program specialists to collaboratively address the college readiness goals of our city's public school system. Currently, the CollegeBound Foundation operates a comprehensive college access program in 17 of Baltimore's high schools and plans to expand to additional high school sites next September.

This groundbreaking team building event was held at the offices of DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP which has supported the CollegeBound Foundation since its inception in 1988.
