A ROUNDTRIP TICKET TO ATLANTA

COLLEGEBOUND'S COLLEGE BARNSTORMING TOUR TO SOUTHERN SCHOOLS

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Georgia State, Tuskegee, Clark Atlanta, Oglethorpe, Spelman, Winston-Salem State, Benedict and North Carolina have one thing in common this spring—Baltimore City Public School System juniors are touring their campuses.

Through a grant provided by the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation to the CollegeBound Foundation, sixty high school juniors are exploring the world of college by learning first hand unique differences found on every campus. Most likely these first generation soon-to-be college students would not have been afforded this opportunity had it not been for CollegeBound's high school based college access program.

Each student is required to fill-out three college applications with transcripts attached and assess their high school transcript prior to going on the tour.

Can you visualize the smile and look of amazement when these kids step onto a college campus?

Making a child's dream of going to college a reality is CollegeBound's business!
