

Fall 2005

“THE LAW IS ON COLLEGEBOUND’S SIDE” BALTIMORE’S LEGAL COMMUNITY

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

Press Release

13th Annual Lawyers’ Campaign

For the past decade, Baltimore’s legal community has made CollegeBound’s mission of helping inner city youngsters get into college their mission, too! Law firms, individual attorneys and The Daily Record have committed time and resources in support of CollegeBound’s one-on-one college advising program at every Baltimore City neighborhood high school.

Since 1992, CollegeBound’s advocate law firms and attorneys have raised significant dollars to fund college scholarships that have enables hundreds of high school graduates to obtain their dream of a college education. CollegeBound wishes to acknowledge this strong commitment to supporting the Foundation’s efforts to provide college access to those youngsters with the greatest need — the majority of whom live in Baltimore’s most distressed neighborhoods.

Most of the young men and women CollegeBound assists in college access processes are the first in their family to go to college. Together — Baltimore’s legal community, The Daily Record and CollegeBound are making a positive difference in the lives of urban kids who represent the future workforce of one of America’s oldest and greatest cities.

For more information:

Betsy Slattery, Campaign Coordinator
CollegeBound Foundation
410.783.2905; fax: 410.727.5786
bslattery@collegeboundfoundation.org

Press Contact:

Teresa Perrera, Development Director
CollegeBound Foundation
410.783.2905; fax: 410.727.5786
tperrera@collegeboundfoundation.org