COLLEGEBOUND, URBAN DEBATE LEAGUE & B4 STUDENTS

WORKING TOGETHER TO PREPARE BALTIMORE'S FUTURE WORKFORCE

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

Press Release

The CollegeBound Foundation, The Urban Debate League, and B4 Students have joined forces to collaboratively develop program strategies that will enhance the services and resources each non-profit provides to Baltimore's youth.

These non-profits share a common client base, Baltimore City public school students, and have chosen to collaboratively work together to support each other's missions. The cooperative efforts of these Baltimore based non-profit organizations will maximize the use of program resources and enhance the quality of program services delivered to Baltimore school children.

Such cooperation and communication among these non-profits can only result in more of our city's children being afforded the experiences and opportunities needed to prepare them for college and our future workforce.
