To College. Through College.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The CollegeBound Foundation Welcomes Four New Board Members

BALTIMORE (Mar. 4, 2015) — Today, the CollegeBound Foundation approved four new appointments to its board of directors:

- Mr. Robert D. Biagiotti, Vice President of Customer Operations and Chief Customer Officer at Baltimore Gas & Electric Company (BGE)
- Dr. Timothy Chandler, Interim President of Towson University
- Mr. David A. Quaranta, Chairman of the Professional Services Management Corporation
- Mr. Marshall W. Taylor, Interim General Counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

As one of Baltimore City's largest college access programs, CollegeBound relies on its board of directors for programmatic input, financial guidance, oversight and strategic support. Since 1988, CollegeBound's board of directors has included many of Baltimore City's most influential leaders from the financial, civic, legal, and nonprofit communities. CollegeBound is proud to welcome its newest board members and to continue helping Baltimore City youth achieve the transformative power of a college education.

About CollegeBound

For 26 years, the CollegeBound Foundation has helped underserved and first generation students realize their dreams of a college education. Today, CollegeBound operates in 18 Baltimore City public high schools, providing full-time college advisors, need-based funding through "Last Dollar Grants," and administering an annual scholarship portfolio exceeding $1.5 million.
